

MEMORY CARD

How have you been touched by

I remember moving from Berkeley to Oakland
in the mid - 1970's.

Oakland was a
quieter, more
beautiful place then
in many ways -

Human-scale building
and intact neighbor hoods - minus the

huge monoliths
being built today
that are destroying
our sense of place.

We had more mom & pop stores, not so many corporate
chains & Emeryville
was less developed
too. Does anyone here

remember the Ali' Baba
or like Jack London
North Oakland Village?
